Farmington Library to Host Exhibit by Fermata Arts Foundation

Fermata Arts Foundation, a non-profit organization located in Avon, CT will be showcasing an art exhibition in the community room of the Farmington Library during the month of June, 2009.

The overall mission of the Fermata Arts Foundation is to aid in the preservation of peace through mutual respect, understanding and cooperation. The model for achieving this is through the synthesis of art, architecture, philosophy and cooperation. The organization exists to promote and encourage true intellectual dialogue between countries, through which the representatives of different countries can discover shared values and spiritual commonality.

The exhibit will run from June 1 to June 30 of 2009 in the Farmington Library Community Room. This exhibition is planned to include the works from the following projects of the Fermata Arts Foundation:

- "Ideal House", an exchange of children's drawings (some of the expected participants are schools from Astana (Kazakhstan), Kharkov (Ukraine), Riga (Latvia), Sofia (Bulgaria), etc.
- "Belltower", a joint project between Massachusetts College of Art and Design, USA and Kharkov State Technical University of Construction and Architecture, Ukraine
- "Let's Build a Roof over the World", a presentation of the works of the professional artists from Kharkov, Ukraine and Nizhny Novgorod, Russia.

For more information about this upcoming exhibition, contact Sara Shea, Marketing and Adult Programming Coordinator at the Farmington Library.

Sincerely,
Sara Shea
